

Historicizing Masculinities: the colloquium

April 22, 12-2 PM | Robert Nye

History, Oregon State University
How Did Honor Codes Promote Pacification and Rights?

April 29, 12-2 PM | Yvon Wang

History, University of Toronto, St. George
Sons, Brothers, and the "Missing Masturbator" Pornography & Masculinity in China at the End of Empire.

May 6, 4-6 PM | Debora Silverman

History, UCLA
Beset Masculinity: Militarism, Modernism, and Imperialism in King Leopold's Belgium, 1865-1909

May 13, 12-2 PM | Maurice O. Wallace

English & Carter G. Woodson Institute for African-American Studies, University of Virginia
The Camera and the Slave: History, Technology & the Problem of Personhood in Louis Agassiz's Slave Daguerreotypes

Mini Conference: Masculinity in Science

May 20, 12-5 PM

Mary Terrall History, UCLA

*Masculine Knowledge for the Public Good:
The Scientific Household of Réaumur*

April Trask Post Doctoral Scholar, OID, UCLA

Malleable Men: Sexology, Masculinity and Testicular Modification in Germany, 1880-1933

Erika Milam History, Princeton

Men in Groups: Anthropology and Aggression in the 1960s

Nathan Ensmenger, School of Informatics & Computing, Indiana University

The Manly Art of Programming? A Gendered History of the Computing Profession

Organized with Mary Terrall & cosponsored by the UCLA History of Science Colloquium & UCLA Office of Digital Humanities

May 27, 4-6 PM | Wilson Chacko Jacob

History, Concordia University
When a Gender Historian Goes Rogue, or, How Not to Think about Sovereignty

Graduate Student Panel on "Historicizing Masculinities"
June 3, 12-3 PM

Roanna Cheung, Fashioning Masculinity: Modern Boy, Consumption, and Beauty Culture in Republican Guangzhou

Daniel Lynch, Southern California Chivalry: The Nineteenth-Century Convergence of Southern and California Masculinities in the Far Southwest

Murat C. Yildiz, Centers of Male Sociability, Training, and Fun: Voluntary Athletic Associations in Late Ottoman Istanbul

All sessions are held in Bunche 6275

For more information contact

Andrea S. Goldman (goldman@history.ucla.edu)
or Kate Norberg (knorberg@ucla.edu)

Sponsored by The History of Women, Men & Sexuality Emphasis, UCLA Department of History Organized by Andrea S. Goldman & Kate Norberg

Supported by the Robert N. Burr Department Chair Fund

UCLA | DEPARTMENT of History